

COVER SHEET
CALIFORNIA INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT

The following information is provided by Cyte-M, Inc.

- The attached report does not guarantee the accuracy or truthfulness of the information as to the subject of the investigation, but only that it is accurately copied from public record. Evidence of identity theft may or may not be identified from this report.
- The recipient of this report shall give a copy of this report to the subject of the report.
- Failure of the recipient to provide a copy of the report as required by law may expose the recipient to liability as specified in Section 1786.50 California Civil Code.
- The subject of the report may contact Cyte-M, Inc., PO Box 2073, Santa Clara, CA 95055-2073, 408/554-9798 to obtain a copy of a report or to make a request to review the subject's file. In contacting Cyte-M, you will receive a written notice setting forth terms and conditions of your right to receive all disclosures provided under California law.

CALIFORNIA NOTICE OF INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT

In connection with your application for employment, we have ordered an investigative consumer report (as defined by California law). This report may contain information on your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living.

This report has been or will be ordered from: Cyte-M, Inc., PO Box 2073, Santa Clara, CA 95055-2073, 408/554-9798.

The scope of the report may include the following: names and date of previous employers, reason for termination of employment, work experience, accidents, drugs/alcohol use. Such report may also contain public record information concerning your driving record, worker's compensation claims, credit, bankruptcy proceedings, criminal records from federal, state and other agencies that maintain such records.

You have the right under Section 1786.22 of the California Civil Code to contact us during reasonable hours (8:00 AM to 5:00 PM CTZ Monday through Friday) to obtain all information in your file for your review. You may obtain such information as follows:

1. In person at Cyte-M offices. You can have someone accompany you to Cyte-M's offices. Cyte-M may require this third party to present reasonable identification. You may be required at the time of such visit to sign an authorization for Cyte-M to disclose to or discuss your information with this third party.
2. By certified mail, if you have previously provided proper identification in a written request that your file be sent to you or to a third party identified by you.
3. By telephone, if you have previously provided proper identification in writing to Cyte-M.

Cyte-M has trained personnel to explain any information in you file to you and if the file contains any information that is coded, such will be explained to you.

CALIFORNIA CONSUMER RIGHTS

You have rights when an investigative consumer report is obtained on you. The following are some of your rights:

1. Whoever obtained the report was required to give you a free copy.
2. You have the right to contact the agency that made the report. You can do this in one of the following ways:
 - (a) You can go to the agency in person during the normal business hours. You can bring someone with you. That person may be required to present identification. You may be required to sign a paper allowing the agency to discuss your file with or to show your file to this person.
 - (b) You may receive your file by certified mail. If you have given written notice to the agency that you want information mailed to you or to another person you want to receive the file.
 - (c) You may be able to discuss your file over the telephone if you have given written instructions to the agency and have provided identification.
3. You have the right to receive a copy of your file or your investigative consumer report at the agency. You may be charged up to $8.00 to obtain a copy of your report or file. However, you may receive a free copy if:
 - (a) Once during a twelve-month period if you are unemployed and intend to seek employment within sixty (60) days or you receive public welfare assistance or you believe your file contains inaccurate information because of fraud.
 - (b) If you are receiving a copy from the agency relating to an investigation into the accuracy of information you have disputed or if information is put back into your file.

The agency must describe these rights to you in English and Spanish.
4. You have the right to know the following information:
 - (a) The names of the persons and companies who have received a report about you in the last three (3) years. You may request their addresses and telephone numbers.
 - (b) Explanations of any codes or abbreviations used in your report, so you can understand the report.
5. You have the right to dispute any information in your file. You must contact the agency directly to do so. The person who ordered a report is required to give you the name and address of the agency.
 - (a) The agency has thirty (30) days from the day it receives your dispute to complete investigation.
 - (b) When the agency is done with the investigation, it must tell you of any changes made in the report as a result of the investigation.
 - (c) If the investigation does not remove the information disputed by you, you have the right to place your statement of the facts in your file. The agency has people to help you write the statement. The agency may limit your statement to five hundred (500) words.
 - (d) If information is removed or you add a statement to your file, you can request the agency to send the report, as changed or with your statement, to anyone who received the information in the last two (2) years.
 - (e) If information that is removed from your files is placed back in your file, you are entitled to receive written notice of that fact and you have the right to dispute the information added.
6. You also have rights under federal law in regard to your report. A copy of those rights are given to you with this California statement of consumer rights. Many of these rights are also included within California Law. Under federal law your report is a consumer report, not an investigative consumer report.
